Sermon

Genesis 41:46-57

The Lord's Supper

“Amazing Love (You Are My King)”

Benediction

CALL TO WORSHIP

---

The Scriptural call to worship at the beginning of our service is a reminder that, as we gather, it is God who initiates and reveals Himself to us through His Word, and we respond to Him.

My mouth will tell of Your righteous acts, of Your deeds of salvation all the day, for their number is past my knowledge.

Psalm 71:15

CORPORATE CONFESSION

During this time we acknowledge that we have sinned against a holy God, and we have the assurance that, because of Christ, we have been forgiven and are blessed recipients of God's mercy, grace and love.

And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for Him.

Hebrews 9:27-28

OFFERING

Giving is an act of worship in which we give generously of our substance to further the mission of the church and to bring glory to God.

The Atonement of Christ

The Atonement Defined: What it is...

The Bible teaches that Jesus died a substitutionary death on a cross to absorb the full wrath of God that sinners deserve.<sup>1</sup> He was crucified as a sinless sacrifice in our place. This is the bedrock of everything we hold to be true about salvation—namely, that Jesus saves those who place their faith in His blood (Rom 3:25). The Scriptures teach that the penalty for sin is death (Rom 6:23) but God sent His son to pay that penalty with His life.

The crucifixion, then, upholds God's unwavering commitment to justice and demonstrates His unfailing love for sinners.

Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus (Rom 8:1). The great news of the gospel, is that, instead of judgment, Christians receive adoption (Rom 8:15), the Spirit (Rom 8:16), and God's love (Rom 8:31-39).

None of these would be possible apart from the atonement of Christ.

The Atonement Applied: Why it matters...

The story of Scripture reveals our need for atonement. It is right to say that God has provided for our greatest and most basic need. As a result, we praise the Father through the Spirit because of His Son, confidently saying, what then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? If God did not spare His only son but gave Him up for us all, how will He not also with Him graciously give us all things (Rom 8:31-32).

As disciples of Christ, forgiveness and joy, not fear and dread, motivate us to pick up our cross and follow Him. The atonement then leads us to worship the Lord Jesus with profound joy and clarity, challenging us to live out the implications of the atonement through our worship, evangelism, and discipleship.

THE LORD'S SUPPER: A GUIDE FOR THE CHURCH

What is The Lord's Supper?

The night before Jesus' crucifixion, He sat down with His disciples to celebrate the Passover meal. This meal commemorated the pivotal event in Exodus 12 when God "passed over" His people in Egypt who put the blood of a lamb over their doorposts.

While celebrating this Passover meal, Jesus took the bread from the table, broke it, and said, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." He then took a cup and gave it to them saying, "Drink of it, all of you, for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins."

Jesus did this to symbolize His impending death on a cross, which would bring about the forgiveness of sins for many. Furthermore, He commanded His disciples to continually enjoy this meal in remembrance of His sacrifice on the cross.

The Apostle Paul in 1 Corinthians 11, and subsequently many Christians today, refer to this meal as "The Lord's Supper," for it was instituted by Jesus and celebrates the memory of His sacrificial death. In addition, we consider The Lord's Supper an ordinance of the church because Christ ordained that it be performed.

Who should partake in The Lord's Supper?

The Scripture is clear that The Lord's Supper is a sign of continuing in the Christian life and is therefore reserved for those who have placed their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Thus, those who have not placed their faith in Christ and publicly declared this faith through the ordinance of baptism should abstain.<sup>1</sup>

Furthermore, the Apostle Paul warns of participating in an "unworthy manner" (1 Corinthians 11:27). He calls all Christians to first examine themselves and their relationships in the body of Christ, lest they "eat and drink judgment upon themselves" (1 Corinthians 11:29). That is, Paul is teaching that we must come to the table with a repentant heart, both toward the Lord and our brothers and sisters in Christ.

QUESTION 43

What are the sacraments or ordinances?

The sacraments or ordinances given by God and instituted by Christ, namely baptism and The Lord's Supper, are visible signs and seals that we are bound together as a community of faith by His death and resurrection. By our use of them, the Holy Spirit more fully declares and seals the promises of the Gospel to us.
