CALL TO WORSHIP

The Scriptural call to worship at the beginning of our service reminds us of the centrality of God's Word. God reveals Himself to us through His Word and invites us to respond corporately to Him in worship.

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dream. Then our mouth was filled with laughter and our tongue with shouts of joy; then they said among the nations, "The Lord has done great things for them." The Lord has done great things for us; we are glad.

Psalm 126:1-3

OFFERING

Giving is an act of worship in which the members of Hickory Grove give generously of our substance to further the mission of the church and to bring glory to God.

BENEDICTION

Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word.

2 Thessalonians 2:16-17

Imagine if everyone at Hickory Grove could answer that question with the name of a person who is lost—a person for whom they're praying and with whom they're seeking to share the Gospel.

That's the intention behind Who's Your One? We believe God's people don't merely need another method for evangelism—what we need is a passion to see people who are lost experience the new life He offers through Jesus Christ.

Use the 30-day prayer guide to pray for that one lost person.

RESOURCE RECOMMENDATION

Marks of the Messenger: Knowing, Living and Speaking the Gospel by J. Mack Stiles

Many think evangelism is rooted in a method. It is rooted in something much deeper. It is found in what makes us whole and healthy messengers of God's truth about Jesus. Mack Stiles has lived the life of the healthy evangelist in homes and coffee shops, at universities and farms.

What he has learned around the world and at home is summarized here in a few basic truths that can shape any of us into faithful people who bring good news to needy and hurting friends. Join Mack Stiles in a life-giving adventure of boldly knowing, living and speaking the Gospel.
