CALL TO WORSHIP

The Scriptural call to worship at the beginning of our service reminds us of the centrality of God's Word. God reveals Himself to us through His Word and invites us to respond corporately to Him in worship.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing praises to Your name, O Most High; to declare Your steadfast love in the morning, and Your faithfulness by night. For You, O Lord, have made me glad by Your work; at the works of Your hands I sing for joy.

Psalm 92:1-2, 4

CORPORATE CONFESSION

In light of God's holiness, wrath, and grace, we acknowledge that we have all sinned against God and are in need of His sanctifying grace. This confession occurs in the context of a covenant relationship made possible through the perfect life, substitutionary death, and victorious resurrection of Jesus. As Christians, our confession is not so that God should forgive us, but because, through Christ, He has already forgiven us.

I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Romans 12:1-2

OFFERING

Giving is an act of worship in which the members of Hickory Grove give generously of our substance to further the mission of the church and to bring glory to God.

GATHERING FOR WORSHIP

In Psalm 92:4 the psalmist writes, “For you, O LORD, have made me glad by your work; at the works of your hands I sing for joy.” As we gather for worship on Sundays, we come to celebrate the works of our God, seen most clearly in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. One of the ways we do this is through singing. As Psalm 105:2 encourages us, “Sing to Him, sing praises to Him; tell of all His wondrous works.” The songs that we sing help us tell of His works. They help us rehearse the wonderful Gospel story. As we sing, we sing with joy because there is no greater message than the message of salvation found in Christ.

Worship begins with a changed heart.

We sing because we have been forgiven of our sins, both past and future. In exchange for our sins we have been granted the righteousness of Christ. We sing because we have been adopted into the family of God. The eternal God is our father, and we are His blessed sons and daughters. We sing because our future is secure. Even while we live on this earth, we are citizens of heaven. However, this worship that begins in our hearts is expressed with our bodies.

Our bodies are often windows into our souls. We are visibly affected by things that move us. We laugh, we love, we cry, and we celebrate. Throughout Scripture, we see many examples of people worshipping God with their whole bodies. In 2 Samuel 6:14-15 David “...danced before the LORD with all his might.” In Nehemiah 8:6 the people of Israel said, “Amen, Amen, lifting up their hands. And they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.” In 1 Timothy 2:8 the apostle Paul wrote that “... in every place the men should pray, lifting holy hands...”

What these examples show us is that our worship is meant to be both cerebral and emotional. Our worship is not based on our emotions, but it is expressed both emotionally and physically. It is based on our knowledge of God and seen in our outward expressions of joyful obedience and Spirit-led freedom.

God alone is worthy of our worship.

If you are a Christian, that reality should cause you to humbly and gratefully rejoice every day. When we gather, let's worship God like those who have been “...delivered from the domain of darkness and transferred to the kingdom of his beloved Son” (Colossians 1:13).

Sing!: How Worship Transforms Your Life, Family, and Church

by Keith Getty, Kristyn Getty

Sing! has grown from Keith and Kristyn Getty's passion for congregational singing; it's been formed by their traveling and playing and listening and discussing and learning and teaching all over the world.

And in writing it, they have five key aims:

- to discover why we sing and the overwhelming joy and holy privilege that comes with singing
- to consider how singing impacts our hearts and minds and all of our lives
- to cultivate a culture of family singing in our daily home life
- to equip our churches for wholeheartedly singing to the Lord and one another as an expression of unity
- to inspire us to see congregational singing as a radical witness to the world
