

HICKORY GROVE
BAPTIST CHURCH

W O R S H I P G U I D E

Harris Campus | Week of March 1, 2020

A WELCOME FROM THE PASTOR

Sunday is about worship, especially congregational worship. Hopefully you will sense that our attention today will constantly be drawn upward. We gather on Sunday, the Lord's Day, from all walks of life, unified in our need for God and determined to keep the focus on the Lord Jesus. We don't need more entertainment or distraction. Our thirsty souls need the Living Water that is Christ. I hope that you will be encouraged and challenged today to sing with enthusiasm, pray with intensity, and listen with expectancy. The Lord is good and today we will celebrate His grace given to us in the perfect life, atoning, death and victorious resurrection of Jesus.

In Christ,

Clint Pressley

Call to Worship

God reveals Himself to us through His Word and invites us to respond corporately to Him in worship.

1 Chronicles 29:11, 13

“O For A Thousand Tongues To Sing”

Corporate Confession

We acknowledge that we are sinners by nature and by choice,
and rejoice that forgiveness is ours through Christ,
whose grace is sufficient to save and sanctify us.

James 4:6b-8a

“Man of Sorrows”

“Is He Worthy”

Pastoral Prayer

Offering

Giving is an act of worship. Members of Hickory Grove give generously of our substance to further the mission of the church and to bring glory to God.

“This Blood”

Sermon

Romans 9:19-33

“You Alone Can Rescue”

Benediction

WHAT IS LAMENT?

Lament is a prayer in pain that leads to trust. As a body of believers, we honestly express our grief and frustration with the brokenness of the world and place our faith in God as the only source of hope and comfort. Lament gives voice to the pain we feel while anchoring our hearts to the truths we believe. It invites us to turn our gaze from the rubble of life to the Redeemer of every hurt.

From Dark Clouds, Deep Mercy: Discovering the Grace of Lament by Mark Vroegop

SCRIPTURE MEMORY FOR MARCH

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Hebrews 4:14-16

BOOK OF THE MONTH FOR MARCH

The Gospel According to Satan: Eight Lies about God that Sound Like the Truth

by Jared Wilson

Not every lie sounds untrue. Some lies are repeated so often they seem to be common sense. That's why lies about God are so dangerous. The Gospel According to Satan examines eight lies the enemy wants us to believe and provides eight lines of counterattack against them.
