CALL TO WORSHIP

The Scriptural call to worship at the beginning of our service reminds us of the centrality of God's Word. God reveals Himself to us through His Word and invites us to respond corporately to Him in worship.

Sing praises to the Lord, O you His saints, and give thanks to His holy name.

Psalms 30:4

CORPORATE CONFESSION

In light of God's holiness, wrath, and grace, we acknowledge that we have all sinned against God and are in need of His sanctifying grace. This confession occurs in the context of a covenant relationship made possible through the perfect life, substitutionary death, and victorious resurrection of Jesus. As Christians, our confession is not so that God should forgive us, but because, through Christ, He has already forgiven us.

For in Him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through Him to reconcile to Himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of His cross. And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, He has now reconciled in His body of flesh by His death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before Him.

Colossians 1:19-22

OFFERING

Giving is an act of worship in which the members of Hickory Grove give generously of our substance to further the mission of the church and to bring glory to God.

who's your 1ONE?

Imagine if everyone at Hickory Grove could answer that question with the name of a person who is lost—a person for whom they're praying and with whom they're seeking to share the Gospel.

That's the intention behind Who's Your One.

We believe God's people don't merely need another method for evangelism—what we need is a passion to see people who are lost experience the new life He offers through Jesus Christ.

It is time for our church to prioritize personal ownership of the Great Commission as we each intentionally pursue one person with the hope of the Gospel.

At times, it seems the mission is simply too complex and too vast. While we can't do everything, we can do something. We can all take responsibility for one. And, because of God's power and the work of His Spirit, each of our ones can add up to make a significant impact for God's kingdom.

Use the 30-day prayer guide to pray for that one lost person.
